

IN YOUR OWN BACKYARD

Midland County

AMY – MOTHER OF 3

Continuously raped by her husband throughout their marriage.

Perpetrator has custody of the children.

“It was a part of his cycle of abuse.”

Nueces County

LORA – DENTAL ASSISTANT

A friend offered her a ride home from work, instead he drove her to his townhome and raped her.

He was questioned but never arrested.

“I thought he was my friend, I trusted him”

Eastland County

RACHEL- COLLEGE STUDENT

She was raped by a friend in her dorm during their study date. Rachel left campus.

He was never arrested, and was allowed to stay on campus.

“We were doing homework and just like that his whole demeanor changed, he went to the door and locked it”

Tarrant County

PIPER – FRESHMAN IN HIGH SCHOOL

Walking home from band camp she accepted a ride from her 17-year-old neighbor who instead took her to his home and raped her.

He was never questioned or arrested.

“I am sick of people not believing me and telling me it was just me being dumb”

Hays County

JACOB – 9 YEAR OLD

He was raped by babysitter.

He never told anyone.

“I was too ashamed to admit it even happened until I was 21 years old”

Cherokee County

ASHLEY – HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT

She was raped by a co-worker at a party. She endured the sexual assault forensic collection.

He was never questioned or arrested.

“I never understood why so many rapes went unreported until I found out firsthand how pointless and troublesome it can be”