Resolution on Promoting a Trauma-Informed and Survivor Centric Approach

WHEREAS inequity is at the root of all forms of violence, including sexual violence;

WHEREAS effective advocacy and inclusive programming are necessary for survivors’ healing and attainment of justice;

WHEREAS the way survivors are treated reflects the way our society respects and values their experiences; and

WHEREAS people’s identities and positions in society impact their vulnerability and experience of violence; therefore, be it

RESOLVED that TAASA has adopted core values that guide their work through a trauma-informed and survivor centric approach which affirms survivor’s experiences; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA believes that by promoting equity we can eliminate sexual violence by fostering communities in which all people are valued, have meaningful access to resources necessary to thrive, and are free to express their full identities without fear of violence and oppression; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA believes in Improving Access to Services and is committed to ensuring all survivors in Texas have access to appropriately funded and culturally-resonant services, as well as systems that are responsive to their needs; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA believes in Building Community through Collaboration and is committed to work that affirms survivors and improves response to sexual violence by engaging with an array of institutions, organizations and individuals throughout the state; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA believes in Acknowledging the Intersectionality of Identities and Systems and is committed to work that centers the voices of those in marginalized communities and those affected by violence by supporting the movements that challenge systems of oppression; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA urges all members to adopt these values into their work and is available to assist members in doing so.

Addressing Clergy Abuse

WHEREAS sexual abuse and violence committed by clergy and other faith leaders is a widespread epidemic;

WHEREAS many look to those in power within religious communities to provide guidance and support in times of need;

WHEREAS attempts to deny, minimize, or hide abuse allows the cycle of perpetration to continue, silences victims, and creates barriers for future victims to come forward; and

WHEREAS when members of the faith community do not respond by believing and supporting survivors it can increase the level of trauma they experience and reinforce feelings like shame, blame, and powerlessness; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED that accountability is not only necessary for those who commit these atrocious acts, but also for those who are complicit by covering the abuse; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA encourages faith communities to partner with local agencies to increase efforts to prevent future violence and support survivors; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA supports all survivors of clergy abuse and urges individuals from faith communities and all communities believe and support these survivors.

Ending Human Trafficking

WHEREAS human trafficking is a form of slavery;

WHEREAS hundreds of thousands of children, women, and men are trafficked across international borders every year;

WHEREAS thousands of children, women, and men are trafficked across and within state borders;

WHEREAS many survivors are trafficked for the purpose of sexual exploitation and victims who are trafficked for labor or domestic servitude are sexually assaulted into submission;

WHEREAS Texas is a border state with numerous points of entry by air, sea, and land and supports several major highway systems for traffickers and their victims;
WHEREAS international, federal, state and local law enforcement agencies are committed to combating human trafficking;

WHEREAS communities can most effectively respond to human trafficking when law enforcement agencies, medical professionals, immigrant advocacy groups and local social service organizations work together;

WHEREAS local sexual assault programs have a critical role to play in preventing human trafficking and serving survivors of human trafficking; and

WHEREAS TAASA is committed to responding to the shifting demands placed on local sexual assault programs; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED that TAASA is committed to preventing human trafficking; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA is committed to supporting survivors of human trafficking; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA will assist international, federal, state and community efforts to confront human trafficking.

Ending Sexual Violence in Detention
WHEREAS the PRISON RAPE ELIMINATION ACT(PREA) establishes a zero-tolerance standard against sexual violence of incarcerated persons of any age and increases accountability for administrators who fail to prevent, reduce, and punish sexual violence;

WHEREAS Texas has the largest incarcerated population in the US;

WHEREAS Texas leads the U.S. in rates of sexual victimization behind bars;

WHEREAS sexual assault in detention is committed by other inmates and staff members equally;

WHEREAS individuals in detention deserve to be free from sexual victimization from other inmates and from staff that work in facilities; and

WHEREAS the majority of prisoners are released back into Texas communities with trauma and unresolved trauma from being sexually victimized in detention can lead to devastating effects including violence that can create additional victims in the community; now, therefore, be it
RESOLVED that TAASA urges all federal, state, local public and private correctional institutions to make every effort to prevent, eliminate, and appropriately respond to sexual violence in facilities throughout Texas; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA supports and encourages local programs to offer emotional support services to individuals in detention who have been sexually victimized based on their capacity to offer these services.

Improving Access for Survivors

WHEREAS all survivors deserve to have meaningful access to services;

WHEREAS the unique identity of every survivor is an essential perspective to reflect when providing services and establishing programs;

WHEREAS additional barriers to service are created and individuals can be revictimized and further marginalized when programs fail to consider the varying needs of survivors; and

WHEREAS client advocacy must always respect the survivor’s individual right to self-determination, which includes recognizing different paths or options for healing and justice; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED that TAASA urges programs to provide equitable opportunities for healing by engaging with the community to create practices that are culturally, socially, and linguistically relevant; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA recognizes centering marginalized identities in planning for programming and service delivery is essential to creating and expanding meaningful access; and be it further

RESOLVED TAASA believes in the importance of service providers continuously educating themselves in order to appropriately evaluate and implement service delivery plans that improve access at all points of interaction between the program and survivors; and be it further

RESOLVED TAASA believes in improving access to services and is committed to ensuring all survivors in Texas have access to appropriately funded and culturally resonant services, as well as systems that are responsive to their needs.

Improving Support for Youth Survivors of Sexual Violence

WHEREAS the majority of perpetrators of sexual violence against minors are known and trusted individuals, often family members and friends;

WHEREAS minors must often rely on trusted adults in their lives to confide in and access services through;

WHEREAS barriers to reporting include fear of not being believed by an adult and getting kicked out of their homes, which are increasingly prominent for LGBTQ+ and youth of color;

WHEREAS research has indicated the most important factor in resilience in child sexual abuse survivors is support from the family and the wider social environment;

WHEREAS young people may not have the developed language or cognitive processing ability to discern, label, and report sexual violence; and

WHEREAS young people can consent to their own counseling treatment at rape crisis centers as allowed through the Texas Family Code\(^1\) with limited liability to the sexual assault program; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED that TAASA will encourage and support training for service providers, advocates, first responders, and all adult influencers to learn about and challenge adultist perspectives that reinforce imbalanced power between themselves and young people; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA will promote programming to engage youth as leaders in sexual violence prevention; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA will encourage sexual assault programs to formalize policies\(^1\) that allow for young people to consent to their own mental health treatment; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA will encourage and support programs and communities to cultivate equitable, compassionate and safe environments for youth both inside and outside of school spaces; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA will support services that impact all youth in order to reach youth survivors and start by believing when they disclose any act recognized as sexual violence.

Increasing Accessibility for Survivors who Identify as Male

WHEREAS 1 in 5 males across the state of Texas have experienced sexual assault in their lifetime;

WHEREAS youth and Adult Survivors who identify as male are less likely to report a sexual assault committed against them;

WHEREAS rigid gender norms, social stigmas and other factors create additional barriers for male survivors of sexual violence who are seeking help and support from the community and first responders; and

WHEREAS Sexual Assault Forensic Nurses are not currently required to perform forensic exams with male survivors as part of training for certification; now, therefore, be it RESOLVED that TAASA will work with members to help reduce barriers for men to access services through continued education, awareness, and provision of inclusive services, and be it further RESOLVED that TAASA will encourage victim-serving professionals to access training and continuing education to expertly serve male survivors of sexual violence; and be it further RESOLVED that TAASA will challenge misconceptions and stereotypes that reinforce strict gender norms that further isolate and silence male survivors.

Supporting Survivors of Sexual Violence

WHEREAS 2 in 5 women and 1 in 5 men have been sexually assaulted at least once in their life;

WHEREAS a culture of victim-blaming and shaming exists prominently and reinforces silence while further traumatizing survivors;

WHEREAS sexual violence may take many forms and impacts survivors’ emotional, mental, physical, and financial well-being; and

WHEREAS less than half of survivors of sexual assault disclose or report and face varied and valid barriers to reporting and engaging systems of care or justice; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED that TAASA will honor the brave survivors of sexual violence, and be it further

RESOLVED collaboration between advocates, counselors, forensic examiners, law enforcement and other allied professionals is important in order to ensure survivors are not only supported but also afforded their rights; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA will cultivate and reinforce safe and inclusive spaces to address and reduce barriers to reporting, and be it further

Awareness and Prevention of Sexual Violence Against the Elder Population
WHEREAS the World Health Organization estimates 1 in 6 elders are victims of some form of abuse;

WHEREAS the population age 60 and above is projected to double to 2 billion by the year 2050;

WHEREAS elders are categorized together by age but are a heterogeneous group of people from every possible background/socioeconomic status/ethnicity/gender, etc.;

WHEREAS awareness of sexual violence against elders historically has not been easily identified nor its existence routinely acknowledged;

WHEREAS the aging process affects both physical and cognitive abilities that can dually increase the possibility of and the vulnerability to sexual violence for elders; and

WHEREAS TAASA is committed to prevention of sexual violence against all persons, therefore be it,

RESOLVED that TAASA is committed to the prevention of sexual violence against elders; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA is committed to increasing awareness of sexual violence against elders, understanding that knowledge is a key factor towards the goal of prevention; and be it further

The Detention of Immigrant Adults and Children
WHEREAS we recognize that adults and children in detention centers are escaping sexual violence and threats of sexual violence;

WHEREAS many who flee from their home country experience sexual violence while in route to and/or while in an immigration detention center in the United States compounding the effects of trauma;
\textbf{WHEREAS} detaining individuals fleeing violence and threats of violence, and holding them in an immigrant detention facility under the watch of armed guards contradicts survivor-centered care;

\textbf{WHEREAS} individuals placed in the Migrant Protection Protocol (MPP) are at a risk of suffering violence including sexual violence in Mexico;

\textbf{WHEREAS} the MPP contradicts the laws of asylum of the United States of America; and

\textbf{WHEREAS} TAASA is committed to \textbf{ALL} survivors of sexual violence, therefore, be it

\textbf{RESOLVED} that TAASA is committed to upholding the standards of care and rights of victims regardless of their status, and be it further \textbf{RESOLVED} that TAASA is committed to advocating on behalf of immigrant men, women, and children detained in immigration facilities who has experienced sexual violence or are escaping threats of sexual violence.

\textbf{Supporting Undocumented Survivors}

\textbf{WHEREAS} Texas is comprised of immigrants from throughout the world who contribute to the state’s social vigor, cultural richness, and economic vitality;

\textbf{WHEREAS} the experience of immigration can lead to emotional and physical trauma for both individuals and their family members;

\textbf{WHEREAS} when denigrative political rhetoric is used to justify legislative initiatives and create false perceptions of undocumented individuals it creates a culture where undocumented victims can be further exploited or unable to seek assistance\textsuperscript{1};

\textbf{WHEREAS} TAASA and its member programs respect the rights of and provides equal service to all individuals affected by sexual violence, regardless of race, ethnicity, national origin, or immigration status;

\textbf{WHEREAS} immigration policies have become a controversy statewide, thereby substantially putting at risk the trust and confidence of the immigrant community which TAASA and its member programs have cultivated for the past several years\textsuperscript{2}; and

\textbf{WHEREAS} the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure prohibits racial profiling by law enforcement and further requires law enforcement to provide potential victims with all reasonable information to prevent further violence, including giving written notice of a victim's legal rights and remedies and of the availability of shelter or other community services for sexual assault survivors, therefore, be it

RESOLVED that TAASA will commit itself and the resources of its members to restoring the trust of undocumented residents, so that all Texas residents and visitors, including all immigrants, can have the confidence to contact and interact with victim service providers without fear of immigration consequences.

TAASA as an Anti-Racism and Anti-Oppression Organization
WHEREAS TAASA is the unifying voice to eliminate sexual violence in Texas;

WHEREAS as the statewide coalition of rape crisis centers, sexual assault programs, advocates, and survivors, we are committed to fostering a culture that respects the fundamental rights and dignity of all in Texas;

WHEREAS forms of oppression such as racism, sexism, classism, and heteroclassism are inherently violent and contribute to cultures of violence;

WHEREAS sexual assault is but one of the forms of violence that occur as a result of these structures;

WHEREAS a basic tenet of the Sexual Assault Demonstration Initiative is that effective sexual assault programs cannot happen if there is not an understanding and direct response to racism and oppression;

WHEREAS programs that do not endorse and enact an anti-racism and anti-oppression approach will be limited in their capacity to serve survivors from marginalized groups; and

WHEREAS a framework based on anti-racism and anti-oppression seeks to dismantle beliefs and structures that perpetuate these forms of violence within the organization and the broader community, therefore, be it

RESOLVED that a core value and guiding principle of TAASA is to maintain an anti-racism and anti-oppression approach, and be it further

RESOLVED that, as an anti-racism and anti-oppression organization, TAASA will seek to identify and implement structures within the organization that are nonviolent, just, and humane, and be it further
RESOLVED that TAASA will seek to disrupt structures and policies within the organization and in the greater community that continue to perpetuate violence through forms of oppression such as racism, classism, sexism, and heteroclassism, and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA urges member programs to adopt these values into their work and is available to assist programs in doing so.

Addressing Sexual Violence in Institutions of Higher Education
WHEREAS there is a continuing increase in attention and funding to addressing sexual violence in institutions of higher education; and

WHEREAS institutions of higher education can include but are not limited to, public and private colleges and universities, trade schools, and seminaries;

WHEREAS sexual violence does not affect all victims/survivors the same;

WHEREAS intersectionality in issues, such as, race, sexual orientation, and gender identity have the ability to further disenfranchise and increase the traumatization of survivors;

WHEREAS institutions of higher education can be insular regarding their own culture, policies, and procedures;

WHEREAS the attempt to protect both complainants and respondents in the interest of fairness can result in the silencing and re-traumatization of victims/survivors, therefore, be it

RESOLVED that TAASA is committed to addressing the needs of victims/survivors in institutions of higher education, and be it further

RESOLVED TAASA is committed to elevating the capacity of member agencies and institutions of higher education to work with students affected by issues of intersectionality, oppression, and culture to address the root causes of sexual violence incorporating anti-oppression work, and be it further

RESOLVED TAASA is committed to supporting member agencies in developing coordinated responses and preventative practices and efforts with survivor-centered and trauma-informed practices in collaboration with institutions of higher education.

Including Transgender & Gender Non-Conforming Clients

WHEREAS oppression is a root cause of sexual violence;

WHEREAS the lack of state and federal discrimination protections for gender identity and/or gender expression in areas such as employment, housing, and public accommodations creates an environment where an individual’s gender identity and/or expression can be used to assert power and control over them;

WHEREAS laws and exclusionary policies that deny an individual their rights and allow for discrimination leads to further oppression and a higher risk of both physical and sexual violence;

WHEREAS one in two transgender and gender non-conforming (GNC) individuals are sexually abused or assaulted at some point in their lives;

WHEREAS some reports estimate that transgender/GNC survivors may experience rates of sexual assault up to 66 percent, often coupled with physical assaults or abuse;

WHEREAS this data indicates that a large percentage of transgender/GNC individuals are living through the repercussions of such trauma and fear of possible future victimization; and

WHEREAS training on working with transgender and gender non-conforming clients is not always readily available, therefore, be it

RESOLVED that TAASA is committed to ensuring that transgender and GNC victims of sexual assault are counted, valued, and a part of the work that TAASA embodies; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA is committed to seeking training resources for members to better expand their understanding and commitment to serving transgender and gender nonconforming clients, and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA will make culturally responsive care for transgender and GNC clients central to the ethical standards of the organization.

Addressing Allegations Against High-Profile and Public Figures

WHEREAS there is a concern in how high-profile cases are treated throughout community resources, legal responders, and medical providers;
WHEREAS confidentiality during high-profile cases can be difficult to navigate due to a number of conflicts and barriers from the nature of the offense;

WHEREAS victims/survivors of these crimes have a right to use a pseudonym to protect their identity; and

WHEREAS navigating communication with the media during high-profile cases has created challenges within the impacted community, therefore, be it

RESOLVED that TAASA is committed to aiding community, legal, and medical providers to provide a collaborative response ensuring offender accountability and victim safety, and be it further

Awareness of Sexual Assault Protective Orders

WHEREAS Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Art. 56.021 states that victims of sexual assault have the right to apply for a sexual assault protective order, as well as to be informed of that right;

WHEREAS Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Art. 7A.01 states that victims not only have the right to apply for a sexual assault protective order, but that the state shall apply for a sexual assault protective order on behalf of the victim in cases where there is a sexual assault conviction;

WHEREAS Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Art. 7A.03 states that when granting a protective order, the court must find whether there are reasonable grounds to believe that the applicant is a victim of sexual assault or abuse, indecent assault, stalking or trafficking;

1 See Tex. Code Crim. Proc. art. 7A.01 (a)(1), (2), (5) (a prosecuting attorney may file a sexual assault protective order on behalf of a victim of an offense under Tex. Penal Code §§ 21.02, 21.11, 22.011, 22.012, 22.021, 42.072, 20A.02, 20A.03, or 43.05); see also Maki v. Anderson, 2013 WL 4121229, at *7 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth Aug. 15, 2013).
WHEREAS the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure does not require a victim to provide additional corroborating evidence (such as sexual assault exam findings or a police report) in order for the court to find reasonable grounds that the applicant is a victim of sexual assault;

WHEREAS when courts deny victims of sexual assault a chance to file for a protective order or requires them to provide a higher burden of proof during protective order hearings, they are not only treating victims unfairly, but are also denying victims their rights, possibly contributing to their trauma by requiring a higher burden of proof, and may be causing victims more harm;

WHEREAS a victim’s testimony or affidavit may be sufficient for a court to find reasonable grounds for a sexual assault protective order, and a court is free to place greater weight on the victim’s testimony or affidavit when making a finding; and

WHEREAS sexual assault protective orders can provide a sense of validation as well as safety for survivors who often see no other form of justice, therefore, be it

RESOLVED that TAASA is committed to supporting the rights of sexual assault victims/survivors, and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA urges courts and prosecutors to uphold the rights of sexual assault victims and not prevent them from applying for protective orders under Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Art. 56.021; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA is committed to raising awareness that courts shall grant a protective order upon a finding that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the applicant is a victim of sexual assault or abuse, indecent assault, stalking or trafficking, and not to a higher standard that requires a victim to provide corroborating evidence, pursuant to Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Art. 7A.03; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA is committed to raising awareness that courts may find reasonable grounds to believe that the applicant is a victim of sexual assault or abuse, indecent assault, stalking or trafficking based solely on a victim’s testimony or affidavit, and may place greater weight on the victim’s testimony or affidavit to make that finding; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA believes all survivors of sexual assault deserve to pursue options that help them feel safe and that they should be treated with fairness, dignity, and respect when doing so.

Resolution in Regard to Public Accommodations and Policies that Target and Deny Rights to Transgender / Gender Non-Conforming Individuals

WHEREAS oppression is a root cause of sexual violence;

WHEREAS any law that denies an individual their rights leads to further oppression;

WHEREAS laws that are designed to deny an individual’s rights to use public facilities, such as bathrooms and restrooms that correspond to their gender identity are more likely to put transgender/gender non-conforming individuals at a greater risk of both physical and sexual violence;

WHEREAS policies that support “bathroom bills” rely on false information that further perpetuates myths surrounding sexual assault;

WHEREAS 50% of people who died in violent hate crimes against LGBTQ people were transgender women who were also sexually assaulted during the crime; the other half were male, many of whom were gender non-conforming4;

WHEREAS 70% of sexual assaults are committed by a perpetrator known or related to the victim, not by a stranger5;

WHEREAS 84% of sexual victimization of children under age of 12 occurs in a residence6;

WHEREAS 60 percent of transgender students report having been prohibited from using the bathroom or locker room that aligns with their gender identity;

WHEREAS these bills designed to ensure “safety” and “protection” of young people, actually increases their danger and stigmatizes students who identify as transgender;

WHEREAS transgender students who experience discrimination, like being prohibited from using the restroom, report higher levels of depression and lower self-esteem;

WHEREAS non-discrimination laws that protect gender identity in public accommodations have existed in many states for over 12 years and have shown no record of increasing sexual violence7; and

4 www.ovc.gov/pubs/forge/sexual_numbers.html
WHEREAS respect and equality for people of all gender identities and expression is an important value of Texas Association Against Sexual Assault; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED that TAASA will not be silent when communities attempt to leverage sexual assault myths in order to discriminate and further oppress transgender and gender non-conforming communities; and be it further

RESOLVED that the voices and histories of transgender victims of sexual violence are counted, valued, and become a part of the work that TAASA embodies; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA is dedicated to educating about the realities of sexual violence as well as utilizing evidenced-based approaches to prevent sexual assault and eliminate future violence; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA urges Policymakers concerned with public safety to allow evidence-based research concerning sexual violence perpetration guide their decisions; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA opposes all policies that seek to institutionalize transphobia and encourage oppression of transgender and gender non-conforming communities; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA urges all whom this resolution reaches to enact rules and regulations which respect and protect the rights of transgender and gender-nonconforming people.

Resolution Regarding the Use of At-Home/DIY Sexual Assault Evidence Collection Kits
WHEREAS persons who have experienced sexual violence deserve quality, holistic, care including multi-disciplinary supportive resources where the focus is on the person as a whole being, versus focusing solely on the evidence collection;

WHEREAS sexual assault is a deeply personal crime that affects more than the physical body;

WHEREAS trauma-informed care incorporates the principles of safety, choice, collaboration, trustworthiness and empowerment;

WHEREAS forensic nurses provide care following these principles so as not to re-traumatize the person who has experienced sexual violence and deliver care to ensure that they are given the information needed to make informed decisions to maintain their bodily autonomy, explaining each step and utilizing affirmative consent throughout the exam process confirming that nothing is done without their consent;

WHEREAS according to the Center for Disease Control, the consequences of sexual violence can be chronic, leading to post-traumatic stress disorder, re-occurring gynecological, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular and sexual health problems;

WHEREAS each of these consequences can be better identified and addressed by a certified medical professional who has received specialized training in caring for persons who have experienced sexual violence;

WHEREAS strangulation is often utilized as a way to elicit complete control and ensure compliance during the execution of a sexual assault both in intimate partner violence/domestic violence situations as well as in stranger assaults and non-fatal strangulation has unrecognized potential for lethality and can have life-threatening consequences without any noticeable outward physical signs on the skin;

WHEREAS forensic nurses have specialized training in screening for strangulation and suffocation and assessing for life-threatening injuries;

WHEREAS the New York Attorney General expressed her fears of persons who have experienced sexual violence collecting evidence without knowing whether the evidence will be admissible in court;

WHEREAS forensic nurses have specialized training in maintaining chain of custody and in providing expert testimony;

WHEREAS medical forensic services are free of charge according to the Office of the Attorney General of Texas, whereas at-home sexual assault kits must be purchased by the person who has experienced sexual violence;

WHEREAS during a medical forensic exam the person who experienced sexual violence has access to sexually transmitted infections (STI) and pregnancy prevention testing and resources, which are not available with at-home sexual assault kits;

WHEREAS the National District Attorneys Association identified that the misinformation given by at-home sexual assault kits will lead persons who have experienced sexual violence to falsely rely on the marketing practices of these companies that have prioritized profit over safety;

WHEREAS the California Association of Crime Laboratory Directors identified the significance of maintaining the integrity of evidence collection and having persons who have experienced sexual violence collect their own evidence jeopardizes the evidence collection objectivity and therefore the potential outcome of investigations and the adjudication process;

WHEREAS persons who have experienced sexual violence that receive sexual assault examinations that are done by certified medical professionals have the option to be a “non-report” and consent to evidence collection without police involvement and at-home sexual assault kits require persons who have experienced sexual violence to make a report to law enforcement or forego evidence collection all together; therefore, be it

RESOLVED that TAASA denounces the use of at-home sexual assault kits, including promoting local and statewide efforts to prevent the sale of these kits; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA will work with sexual assault coalitions throughout the state to provide solutions to forensic nursing gaps in order to promote holistic care that is comprehensive and trauma informed.

Resolution Identifying Staff-Care as an Essential Aspect of Trauma-Informed Survivor-Centric Care

WHEREAS as the statewide coalition of rape crisis centers, sexual assault programs, advocates, and survivors, TAASA is committed to fostering a culture that respects the fundamental rights and dignity of all;

WHEREAS individuals involved in the anti-sexual violence movement are exposed to trauma on a regular basis;

WHEREAS witnessing trauma can and does have a cumulative toll on a person’s overall well-being;

WHEREAS organizations working to address social injustices are founded in response to trauma, therefore, being consistently exposed to and impacted by trauma;

WHEREAS an organization’s recognition and response to all forms of trauma, including but not limited to acute, complex, interpersonal, vicarious, and historical traumas experienced by survivors, staff, and volunteers, can either cultivate a space for healing or compound the harmful effects of trauma;

WHEREAS while staff and volunteers possess astounding amounts of resilience, wisdom, and strength, resiliency can be impacted by prolonged trauma exposure, and the negative impact of trauma exposure can be compounded by organizational leadership and culture;

WHEREAS organizations that impede or do not intentionally address trauma exposure, as well as the overall well-being of staff and volunteers, experience high rates of turnover that results in the loss of highly-skilled and dedicated individuals (which studies show impacts BIPOC professionals, especially Black professionals, at disproportionally higher rates)\(^{10}\);

WHEREAS an organization’s ability to be trauma-informed begins with organizational leadership and their commitment to fully integrating trauma-informed principles into organizational culture, including policies and practices, both documented and observed, that involve treatment of individuals that work and volunteer for the agency\(^{11}\);

WHEREAS when organizations honor the experiences of volunteers and staff, it cultivates a larger culture of care that can transform trauma and create change for individuals as well as the movement\(^{12}\);

WHEREAS trauma-informed care is not a therapy or an intervention, but a comprehensive principle-based, culture-changing process aimed at recognizing strengths and resiliency, acknowledging the effects of trauma, and actively working to prevent re-traumatization, so that individuals can have healthy and positive lives\(^{13}\); and

WHEREAS organizations that integrate trauma-informed principles are better able to support and center the experiences of the survivors they serve; therefore, be it

RESOLVED that TAASA encourages organizations serving sexual assault survivors to recognize and respond to all forms of trauma and understand the principles and pillars of trauma-informed care\(^{14}\); and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA urges organizations serving sexual assault survivors to strategize and integrate the following trauma-informed pillars throughout their entire agency in policies and practices regarding survivors, staff, and volunteers:

- Safety
- Trustworthiness and transparency
- Peer support
- Collaboration and mutuality
- Empowerment, voice, and choice
- Responsive to the intersecting needs of staff and the origins of trauma, including historical, collective, and the inter-generational impact of trauma; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA emphasizes that trauma-informed organizations must actively take steps to support staff and volunteers and their physical, emotional, relational, and financial well-being; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA believes those who work and volunteer for organizations that serve sexual assault survivors deserve to be compensated for their work rather than exploited for their dedication to the movement; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA acknowledges that the findings of the Victim Services Occupation Information and Compensation Experiences (VOICES) survey are reflective of many individuals in the field and urges all organization to look to them for guidance; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA urges all organizations serving sexual assault survivors to incorporate their staff and volunteers in decision-making processes and seek guidance and input on how the organization’s policies, practices, and culture can facilitate an environment that supports overall health and well-being; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA affirms the importance of having leadership that models and practices trauma-informed behavior, which includes actively assessing and attending to their own trauma as well as actively assessing and attending to organizational trauma; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA commits itself to assist organizations in cultivating an environment where the individuals working and volunteering are honored, cared for, valued, heard, empowered, supported, and treated with fairness, dignity, and respect.

Resolution in Support of Trauma-Informed, Evidence-Based Therapies for Sexual Assault Survivors

WHEREAS survivors of sexual assault and abuse may experience trauma;

WHEREAS the most commonly cited definition on trauma is from the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA)22: “‘Individual trauma results from an event, series of events, or set of circumstances that is experienced by an individual as physically or emotionally harmful or life threatening and that has lasting adverse effects on the individual’s functioning and mental, physical, social, emotional, or spiritual well-being.’”;

WHEREAS the consequences of sexual assault are far-reaching, including physical and emotional impacts such as mental health disorders such as major depression, anxiety, suicidal ideation, of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), substance use disorders, as well as physical health impacts such as migraines, physical disabilities, gastrointestinal disorders, and chronic health conditions and physical disabilities23;

WHEREAS most persons impacted by sexual assault and violence experience some symptoms of PTSD24;

WHEREAS lifetime prevalence of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) for persons who have been sexually assaulted far exceeds US National estimates25;

WHEREAS research has also indicated that with appropriate supports and intervention, people can overcome traumatic experiences;

WHEREAS culturally meaningful trauma healing practices are integral for many survivors;

WHEREAS peer and spiritual support can be helpful tools for survivor healing in addition to use of evidence-based therapies;

WHEREAS therapies such as Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT), Cognitive Processing Therapy (CPT), Prolonged Exposure (PE), Cognitive Therapy (CT), Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing (EMDR), and Narrative Exposure Therapy (NET) have been identified as recommended by the American Psychological Association and the Veterans Administration/Department of Defense Clinical Practice Guideline Working Group as recommended therapies for the treatment of PTSD26;

WHEREAS evidence supports that the majority of individuals who meet the diagnostic criteria for PTSD are not able to access evidence-based treatment options27;

WHEREAS the state of Texas ranks 50th in access to mental health care and those with limited income or inadequate healthcare coverage may not be able to receive therapy28;

WHEREAS clinical services offered by sexual assault programs are able to remove financial barriers and increase access to evidence-based mental healthcare; therefore be it

RESOLVED that TAASA urges the use of recommended evidence-based therapies for sexual assault survivors seeking clinical mental health support and treatment; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA encourages organizations serving sexual assault survivors to provide access to and support, financially and by allotting time to attend, training and supervision for therapists and counselors in evidence-based therapies; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA implores mental health providers treating sexual assault survivors to receive specific training around the treatment of trauma, as well as specific sexual assault trauma treatment; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA emphasizes that therapists practicing mental health treatment must be in good standing, adhering to all licensing requirement and ethics including addressing their own trauma history as well as the impacts of providing trauma treatment, such as vicarious traumatization; and be it further 28 Mental Health America (2020). Ranking the states. MHA. https://www.mhanational.org/issues/ranking-states

RESOLVED that TAASA urges agencies and organizations to provide access to evidence-based treatment modalities to mental health practitioners impacted by exposure to trauma through supporting sexual assault survivors; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA advises agencies to have policies for clinical staff therapists and counselors which are in alignment and compliant with the current rules for licensees, including the use of clinical case notes, practices around retention of records, and HIPAA regulations; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA supports transparency of the services an agency is able to provide to sexual assault survivors and should access to effective and evidence-based mental health treatment be a limitation of the organization that the agency will make best efforts to assist survivors in accessing those services.

Resolution in Support of Pronouns in Rape Crisis Center Services
WHEREAS language is the lens through which we understand the world, and has the power to affirm and legitimize, as well as invalidate and harm;

WHEREAS asking community members what their gender pronouns are and consistently using them correctly is a basic way to show your respect for their gender identity;

WHEREAS, pronouns are often used with dichotomous language, placing individuals who identify as transgender, non-binary, genderfluid, genderqueer, and/or any other gender that is not cis, at a higher risk of physical and verbal violence; and

WHEREAS LGBTQIA+ individuals have reported being excluded from services or mistreated by service providers by using incorrect pronouns; therefore be it

RESOLVED that TAASA will respect others by using gender neutral pronouns and/or use names in place of pronouns until someone's pronouns are disclosed with consent; and be it further

RESOLVED once pronouns are known, TAASA will mirror the language a survivor is using to identify themselves and their experiences; and be it further

29 PCAR - Technical Assistance Bulletin - Proactive Inclusion of LGBTQIA+ Survivors of Sexual Violence

RESOLVED as aspiring allies, TAASA also commits to providing and pursuing education around pronoun use and trauma-informed practices; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA supports and encourages the option of using pronouns in official professional correspondence and representation, as in business cards, and email signatures; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA stands to create a culture where sharing pronouns are commonplace; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA will ensure there are learning opportunities around LGBTQ+ issues and language.

Resolution in Support of Culturally-Grounded Healing and Sexual Violence
WHEREAS trauma results from an event or series of events caused by individuals, communities, systems, and/or set of circumstances experienced as physically, sexually, psychologically harmful and/or life-threatening;

WHEREAS trauma may cause adverse effects on an individual’s physical, social, emotional, relational, mental, and/or spiritual well-being and functioning;

WHEREAS historical trauma is defined as the cumulative emotional and psychological wounding across generations, including the lifespan, which emanates from massive group trauma and includes the suppression of cultural healing practices through historical processes and continued through systemic racial and ethnic oppression;

WHEREAS healing modalities are imbedded in specific cultural contexts and worldviews thus the intersection of racial and ethnic identity, sexuality, gender identity and expression are primary in determining the most appropriate therapeutic interventions;

WHEREAS professionalized healing modalities are not always the most appropriate for all survivors who may benefit from healing modalities more resonant with their cultural identity and are practiced outside of the those offered in most sexual assault programs;

WHEREAS despite suppression and marginalization, there are culturally-grounded organizations and healing practices developed by and for the communities they serve and may be distinct from formal, professionalized forms of therapeutic interventions; and

WHEREAS it is imperative that we respect, value, and credit the cultures and people who developed particular culturally-grounded healing modalities so as not to continue racial and ethnic oppression; therefore be it

RESOLVED that TAASA will move with intention and integrity to reach out, build trust and relationships with culturally-grounded organizations and healers; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA will support culturally-grounded healers and their work and sharing their services with appropriate audiences; and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA will support the professional development of culturally-grounded healers and the intersections of sexual violence, and be it further

RESOLVED that TAASA will support sexual assault programs with opportunities to learn about historical trauma, culturally-grounded organizations/healers, when and how culturally-grounded healing modalities are appropriate and developing a working relationship with culturally-grounded healers and organizations.
